Hardwick Hall

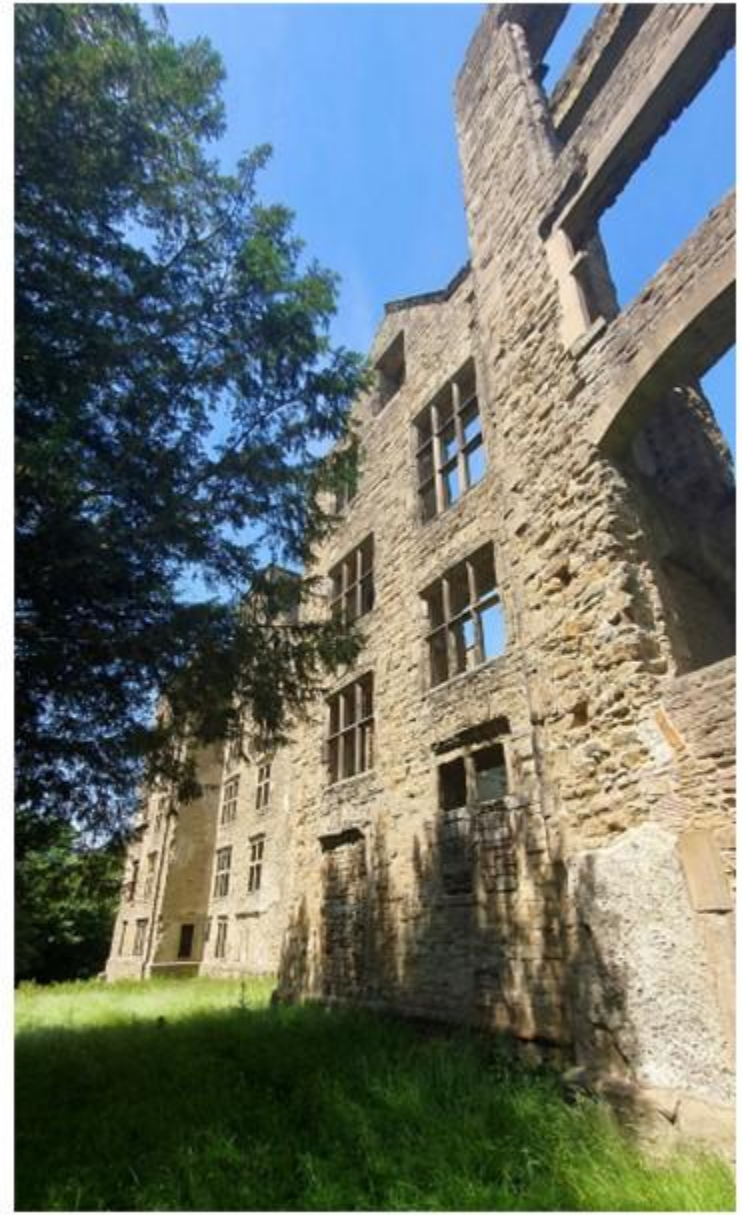

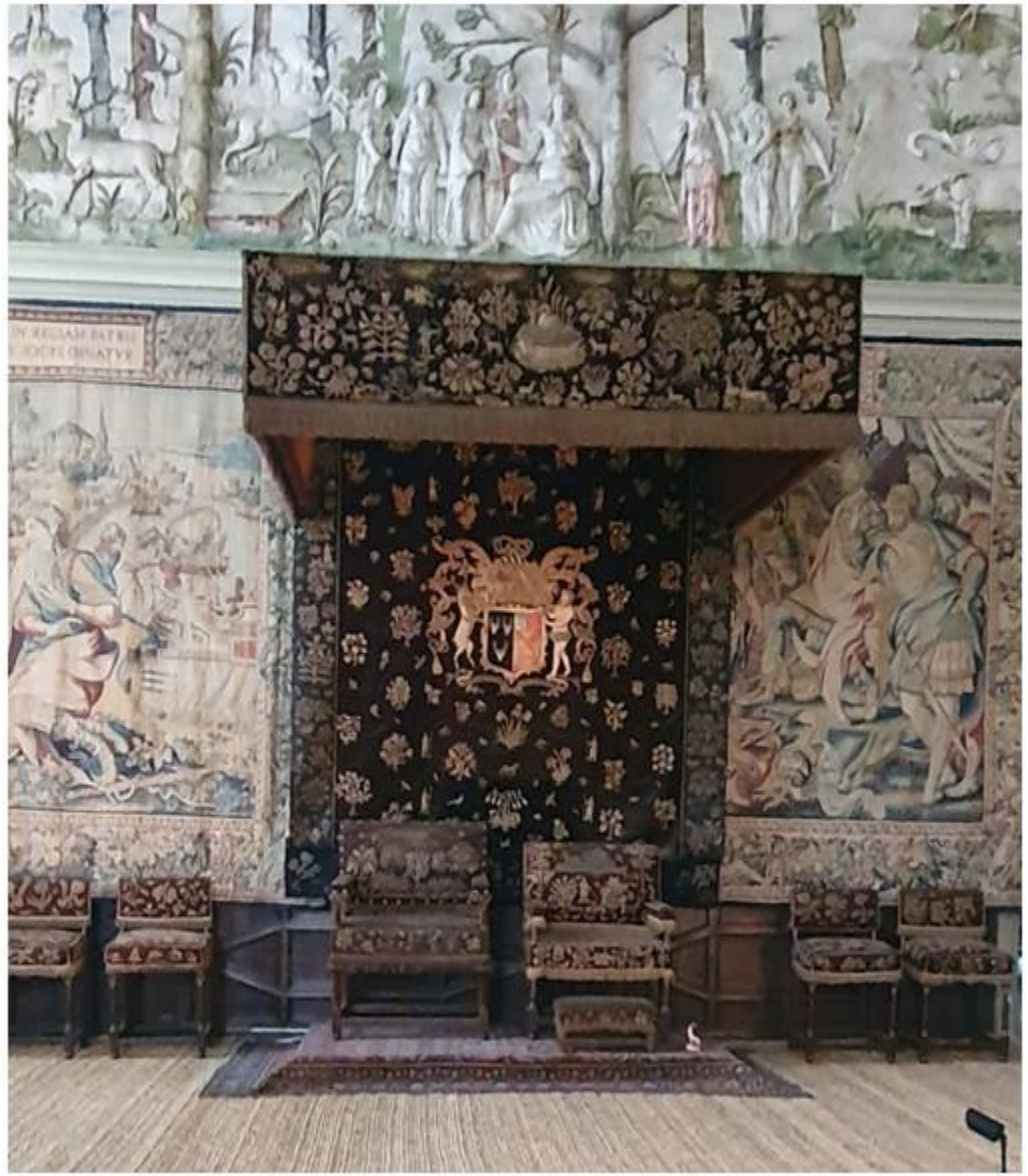

Old Hardwick Hall

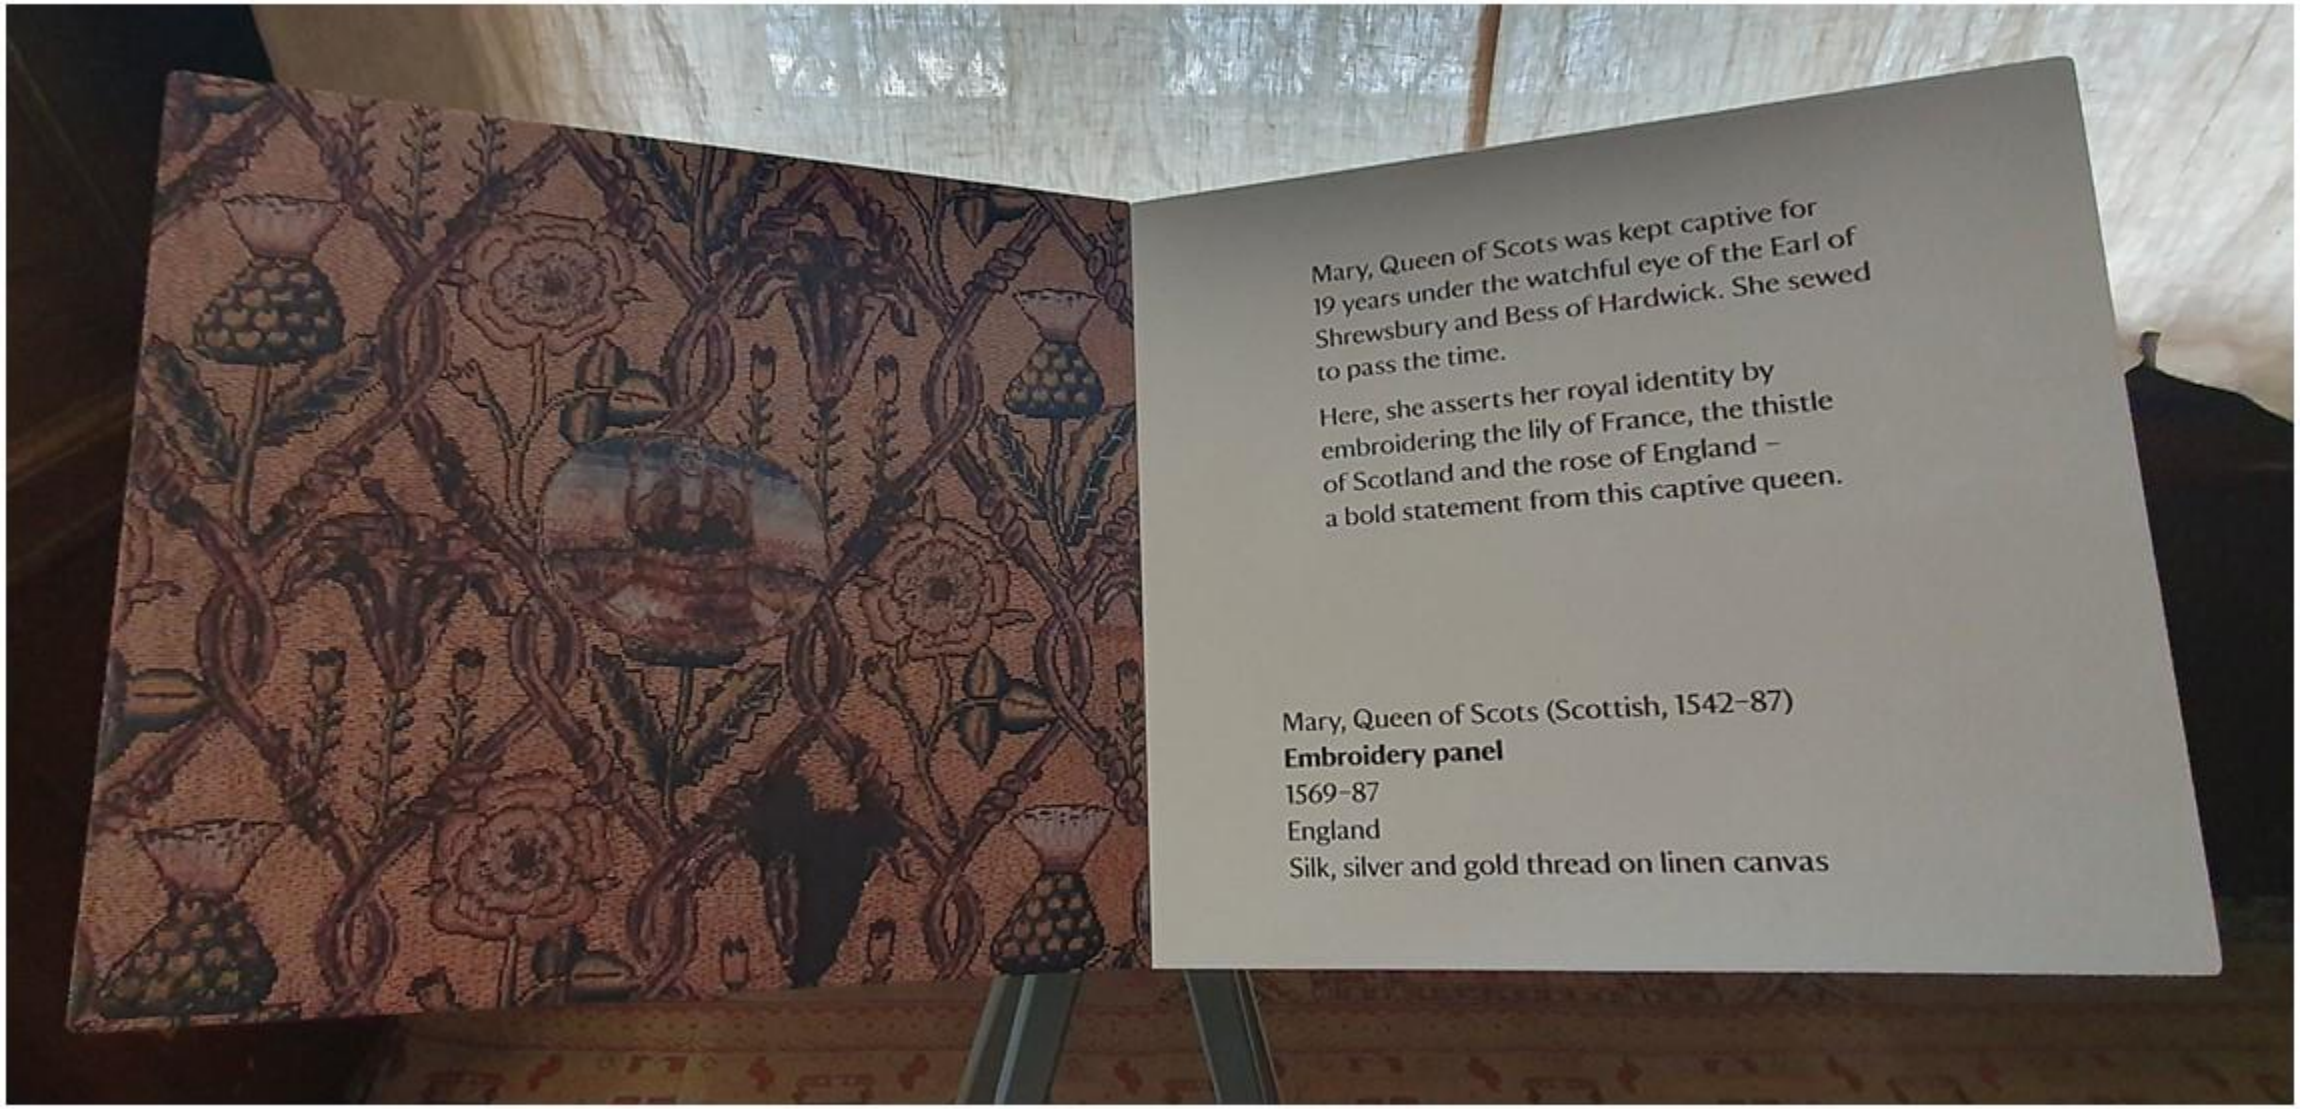

Hardwick Hall

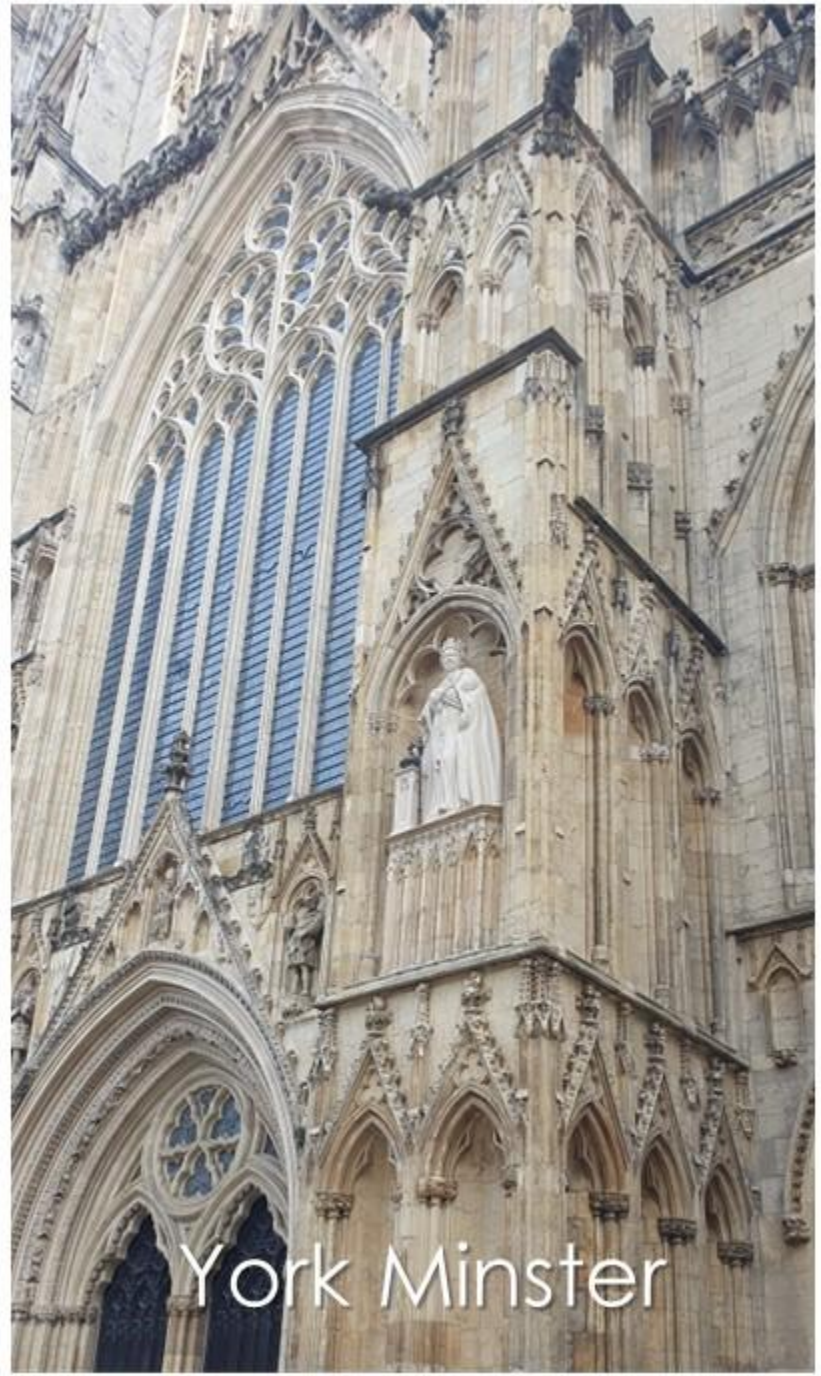

The High Great Chamber

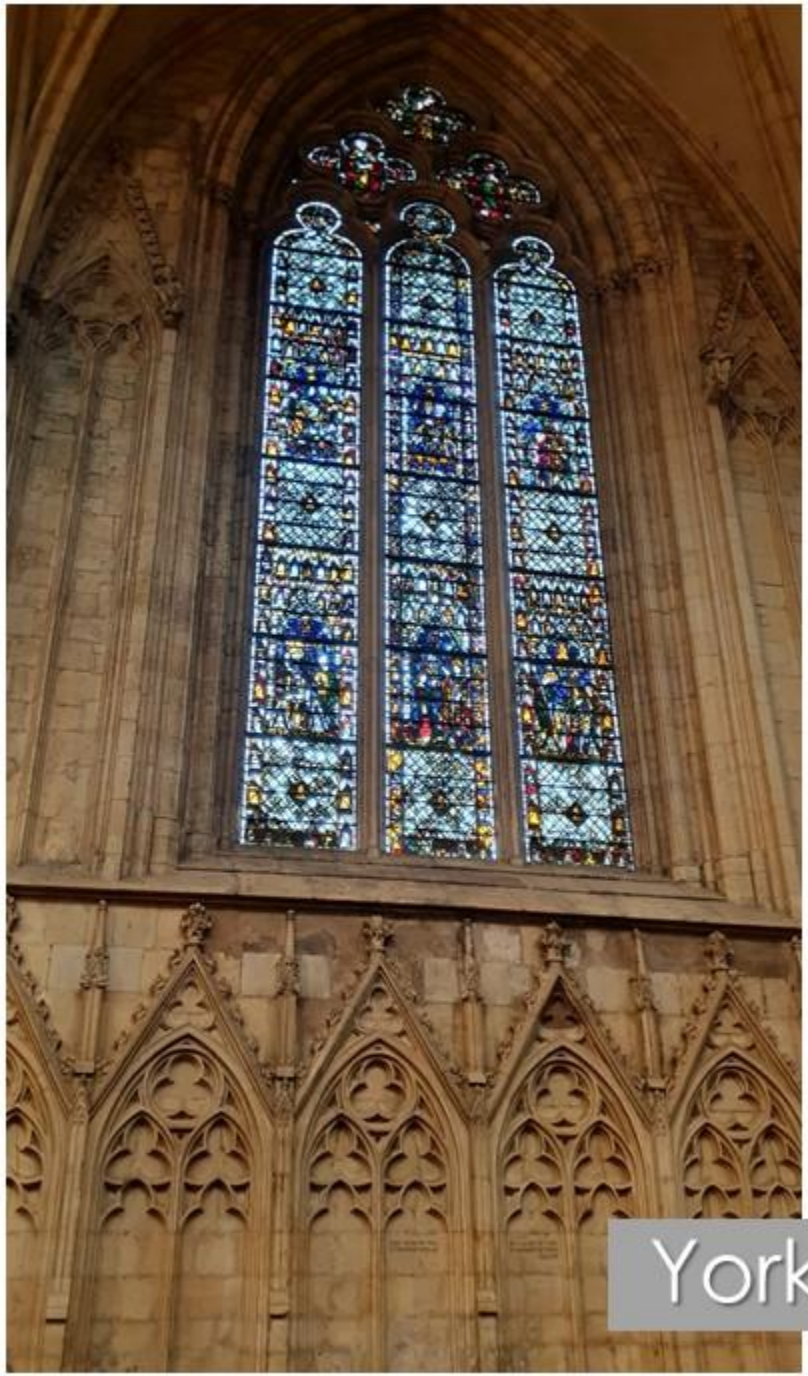

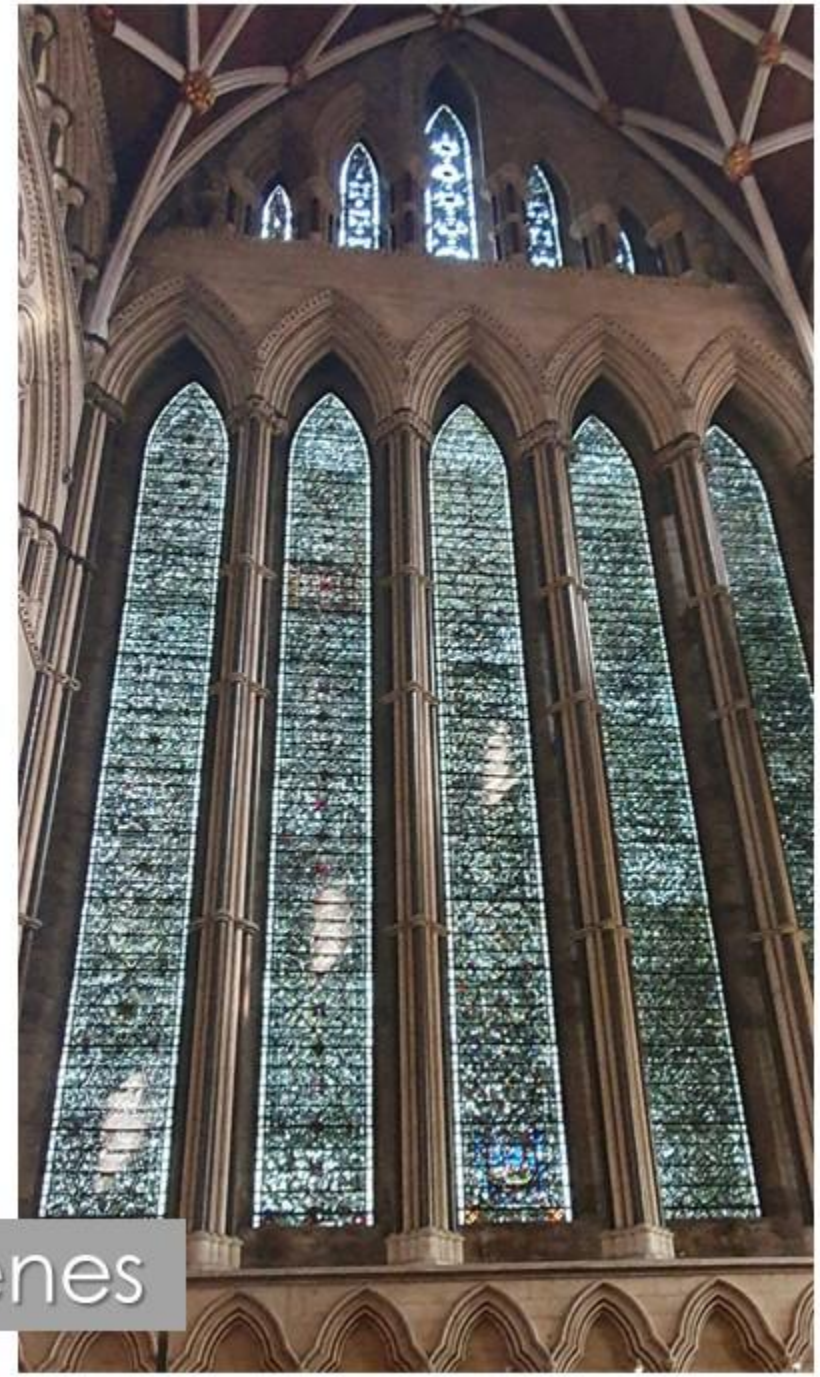

Mary Queen of Scots Embroidery Panel

York Minster

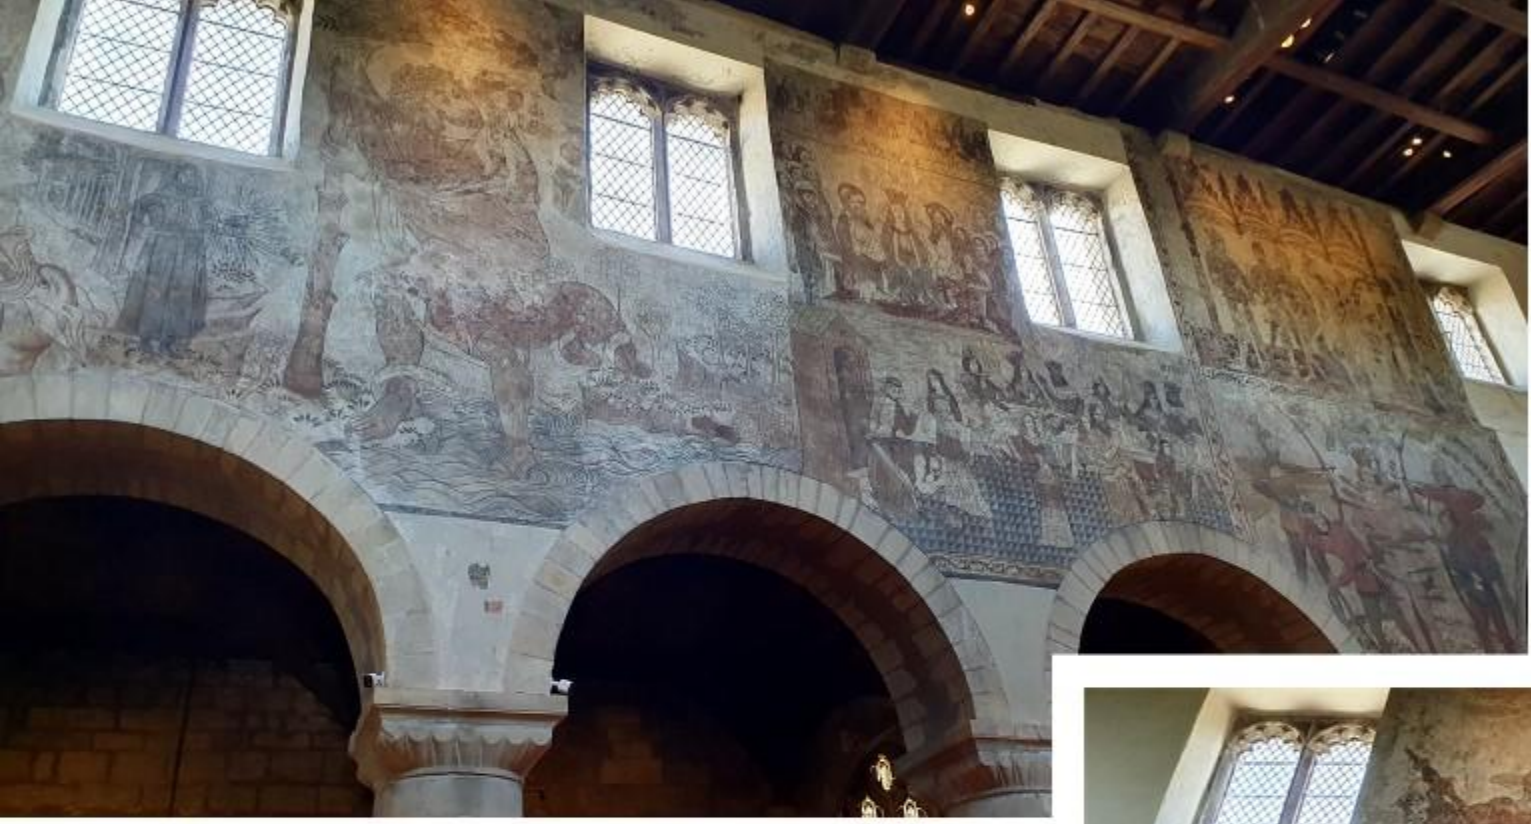

York Minster – interior scenes

Jorvik Centre Exhibit

Church of St Peter & St Paul, Pickering

North Yorkshire Moors Railway Trip

The Locomotive that we were hoping to get.....

.....and the one we actually got!

Photos – Mark Woodward

Harbour Scene - Whitby

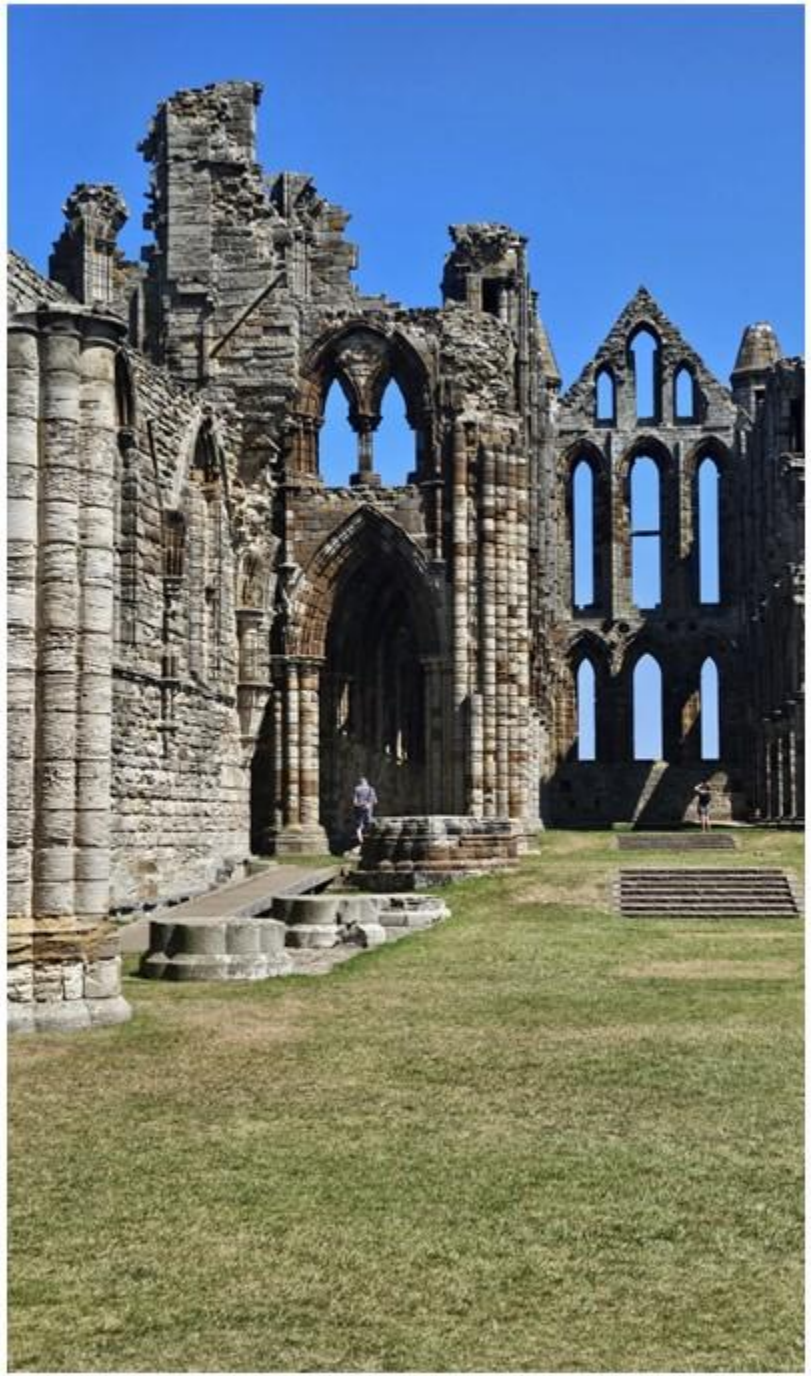

The way up to Whitby Abbey and back down .

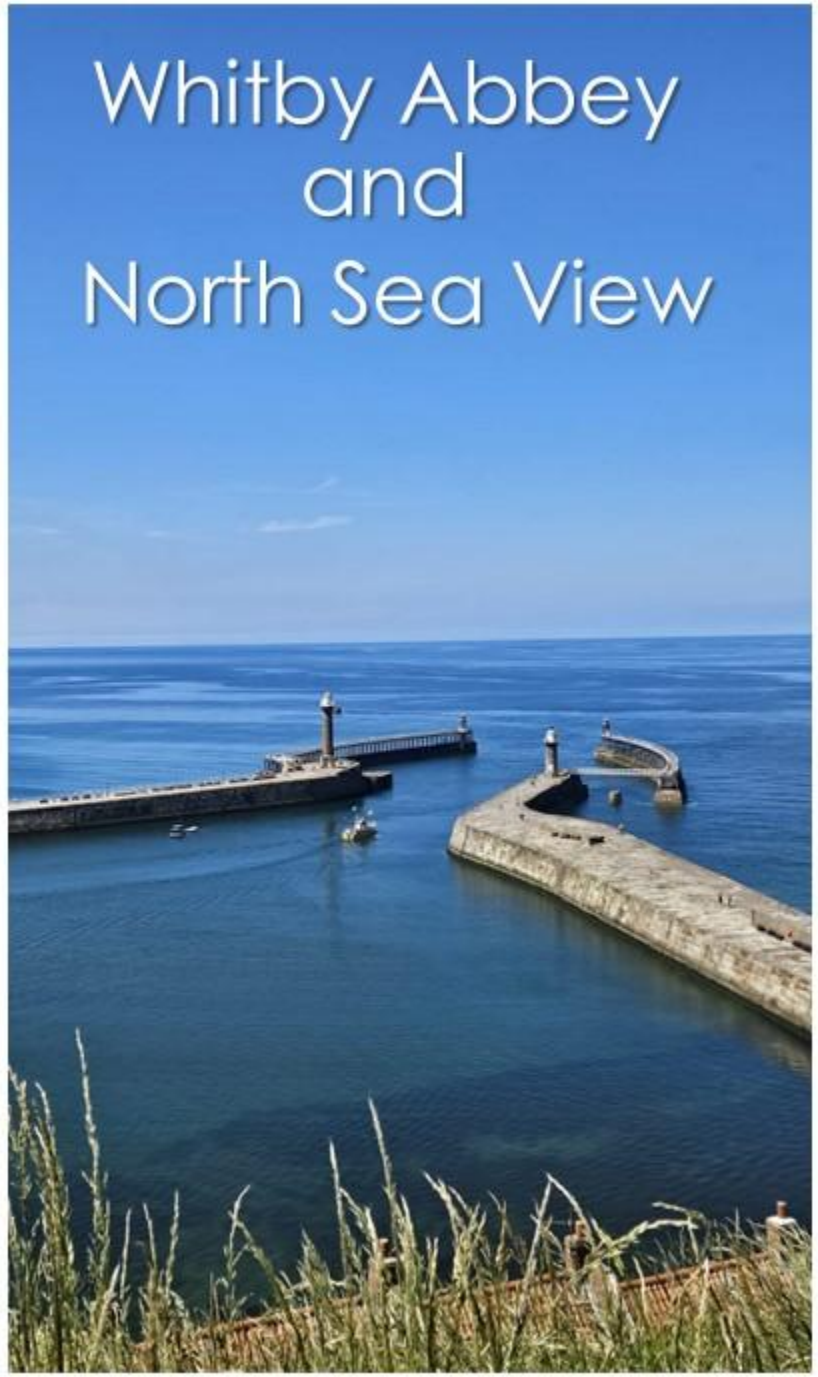

Photos – Trish Talbot

Whitby Abbey and North Sea View

Photos – Trish Talbot

Yorkshire Lavender Farm Hillside views

Lavender Fields

Scarborough Fair - Organ Decoration

Another Massive Organ

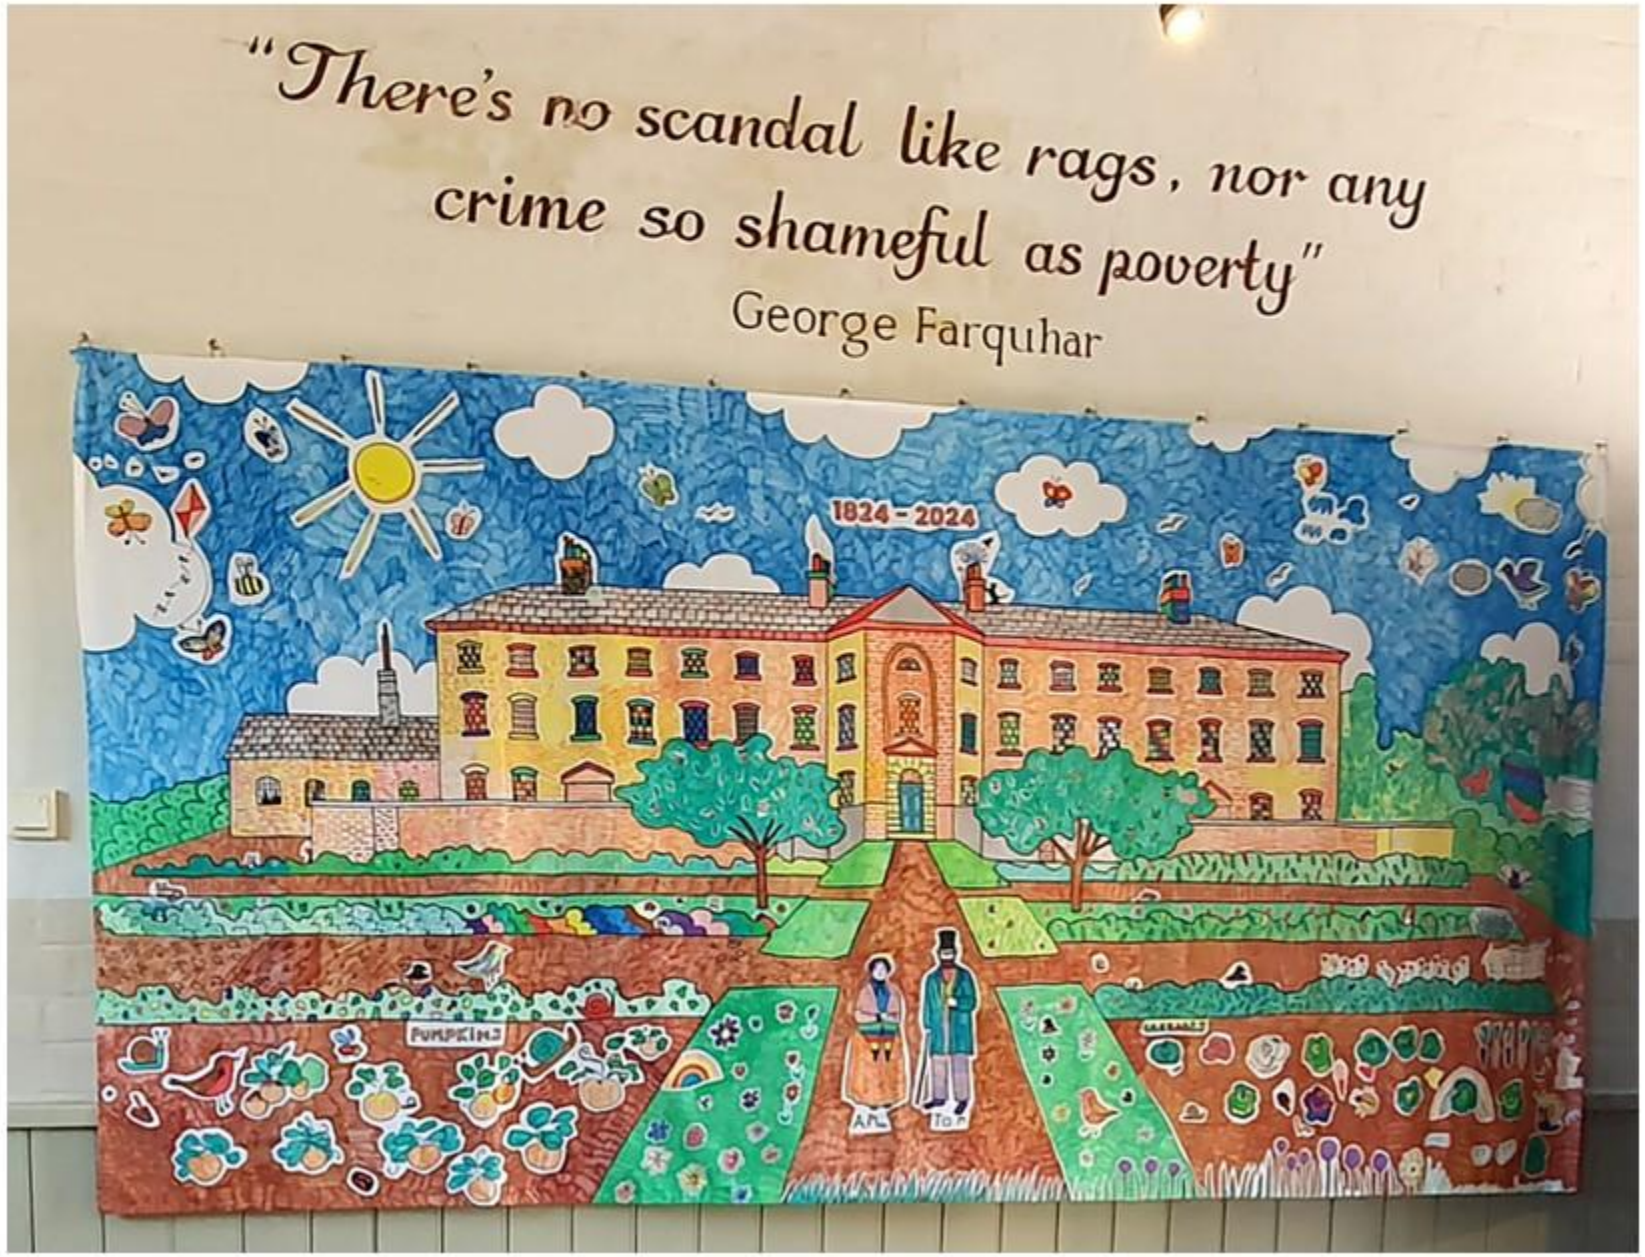

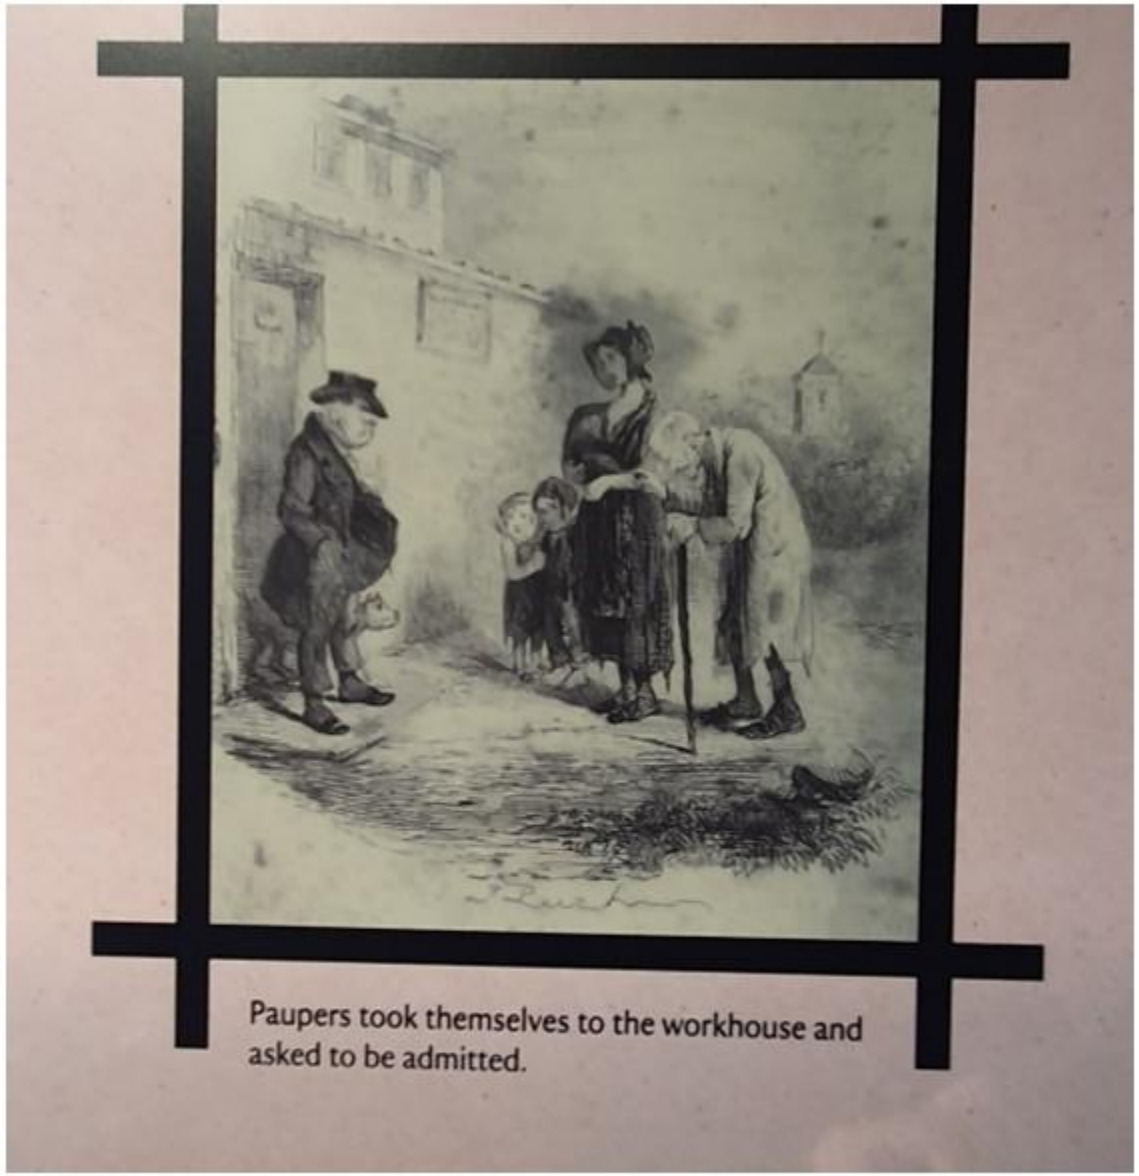

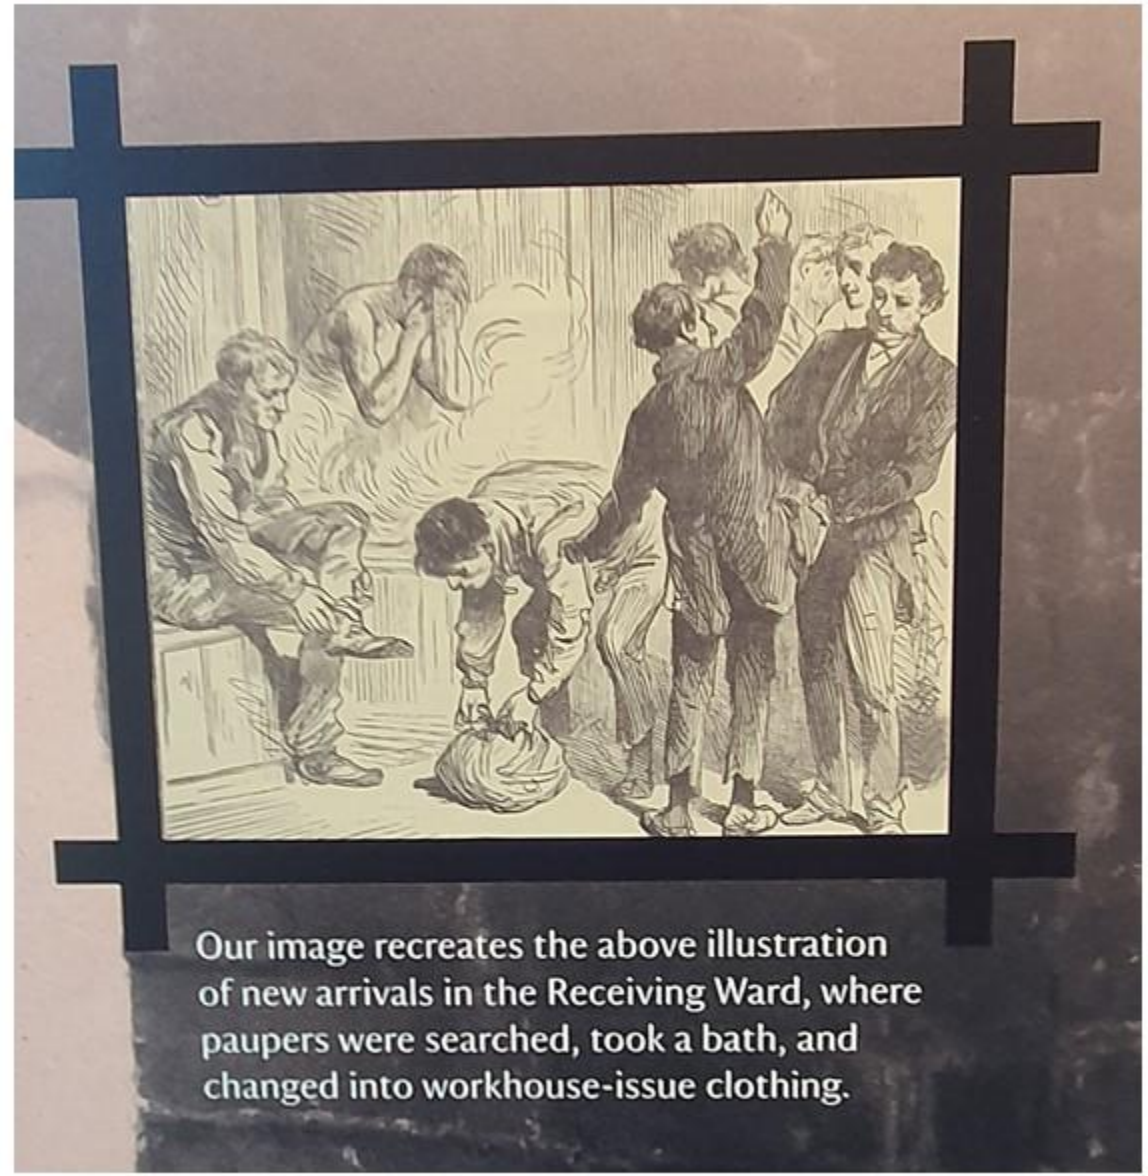

Galloping Horses on the Fairground Ride

Southwell Workhouse and Infirmary

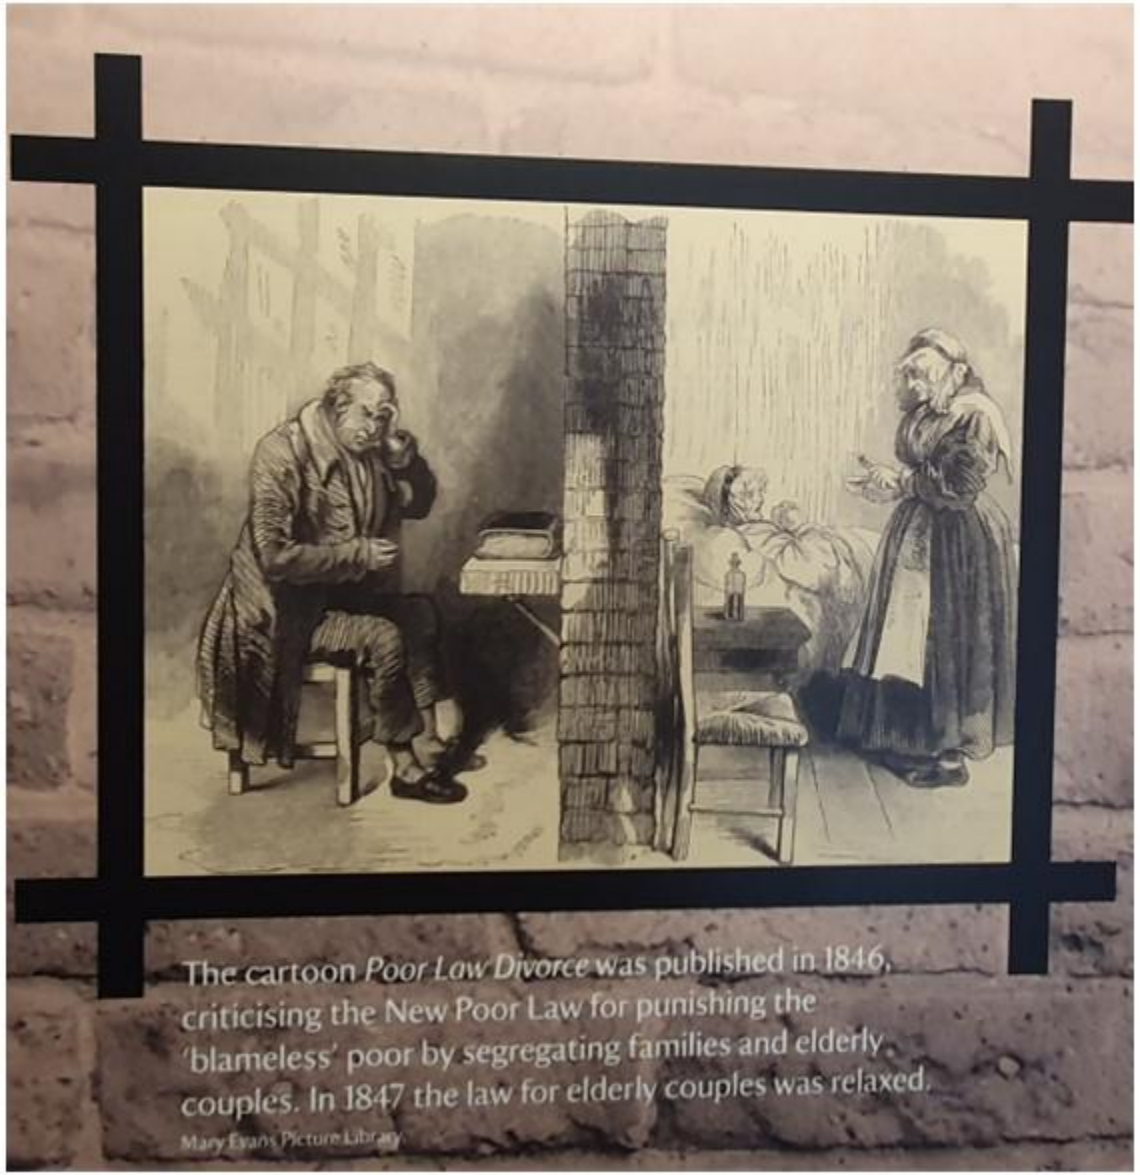

Paupers took themselves to the workhouse and asked to be admitted.

Our image recreates the above illustration of new arrivals in the Receiving Ward, where paupers were searched, took a bath, and changed into workhouse-issue clothing.

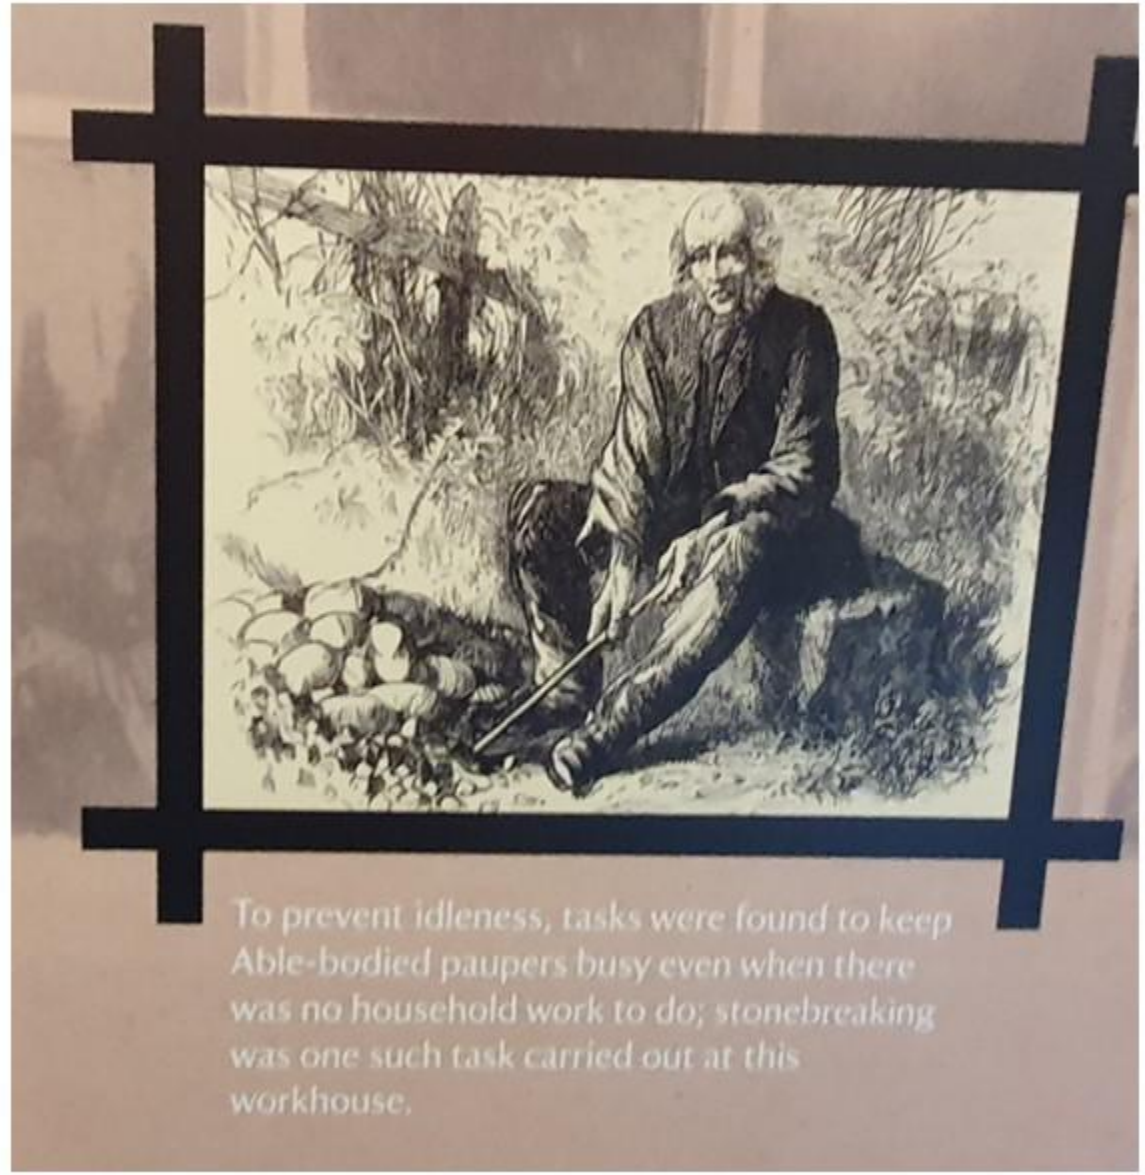

The poor asking to be admitted - given a bath and workhouse clothes

The cartoon Poor Law Divorce was published in 1846, criticising the New Poor Law for punishing the 'blameless' poor by segregating families and elderly couples. In 1847 the law for elderly couples was relaxed.

Mary Evans Picture Library

Segregation

To prevent idleness, tasks were found to keep Able-bodied paupers busy even when there was no household work to do; stonebreaking was one such task carried out at this workhouse.

Thankless Tasks